Weekly Newsletter of the Kanawha City Church of Christ

The Columbia Shelter at Coonskin Park has been reserved Sunday, June 11, 2017 for a church picnic. The time will be 4:00-8:00pm. The Columbia shelter has a small kitchen, restrooms, two large charcoal grills, large grassy areas, and small playground equipment. There's plenty of parking at the site and across the street. The Columbia is the first shelter on the left as you enter the park. It is fully accessible for all ages and abilities, close to the pond, soccer field, larger play equipment, pool and golf course! It seats 120+ comfortably. Please bring a covered dish (A needs list will soon be posted on CCB), bikes, ballgloves, etc., and plan to have a great time with your church family!

The following responsibilities will help make the picnic a great time for all:

Reynolds LifeGroup – food set up & clean up, communication, video

Morris LifeGroup – bring toys, rent inflatables, and/or facilitate fun stuff for kids

Hannigan LifeGroup – facilitate fun stuff for adults (singing, games, door prizes, etc.)

Denham LifeGroup – devotional, farewell presentation to Maskers

If you are not currently active with a LifeGroup but would like to offer your ideas and assistance, please contact the respective LifeGroup leader(s). If you can contribute in any way, your help is most appreciated!

Finally, please invite a friend. A special invitation is extended to past members of the Kanawha City Church of Christ! If you are connected with past members, through Facebook or otherwise, please let them know how much we would enjoy their fellowship at this event.
